

OUR FOOD STORIES

PROGRAMME

7 – 14 NOVEMBER 2026

Split · Gastronomy · Wine · Tradition · Togetherness

Our Food Stories

From 7 to 14 November 2026, Split becomes a meeting place for gastronomy, tradition, wine and the people who preserve the flavours and stories of our region. The event brings together traditional dishes, indigenous ingredients, wines, island products, local producers and cultural heritage through a series of events at various locations across the city.

7 November 2026 – Poljica table

A Festival of Poljica Gastronomy · Prokurative Square · 17:00 – 23:00

A programme celebrating the culinary heritage of Poljica, its traditional dishes, local ingredients and customs. Visitors can enjoy a full day of activities featuring presentations, workshops, stories about local traditions and the authentic flavours of Poljica.

- 09:00 – Opening of the programme
- 09:15 – Performance by the majorettes
- 09:30 – Presentation of family-run farms
- 09:45 – Dalmatian collard greens with Ivan Pažanin and firefighters
- 10:00 – Workshops on making poljičica and soparnik
- 10:30 – Gingerbread-making workshop
- 11:00 – “Stories You Can Taste”
- 11:45 – Performance by the Dugi Rat Cultural and Artistic Society
- 12:00 – Traditional culinary demonstrations
- 12:45 – Traditional Dalmatian food accompanied by klapa singing
- 14:00 – Auction
- 14:15 – End of the daytime programme
- 17:00 – Round-table discussion
- 19:00 – Performance by the Pašika klapa group

11 November 2026 – St Martin's Day (Martinje)

Fish market · 19:00

To celebrate St Martin's Day, a major concert by Matko and Brane will take place in front of the Fish Market, starting at 19:00. Inside the Fish Market, visitors can enjoy wine presentations and tastings, alongside displays and tastings of traditional local food products and dishes.

More than 20 food and wine exhibitors will take part, presenting their products and offering visitors the opportunity to sample a variety of local and traditional specialities. The programme will also include a workshop on making homemade makaruni (traditional pasta), highlighting the richness of local culinary traditions.

In Obrov Street, visitors will be able to sample and discover young wines, adding another dimension to the St Martin's Day celebrations and offering an opportunity to meet winemakers and explore their selections.

12 November 2026 – Holy Cross Church and Obrov street

Holy Cross Church and Obrov street · 17:00-23:00

In front of Holy Cross Church, an outdoor cooking event will take place, accompanied by a special talk on health and wine. The programme combines gastronomy, the preparation of traditional dishes and educational content on responsible wine consumption and its place in our diet and Dalmatian culture.

In Obrov Street, visitors can look forward to presentations and tastings of young wines, with opportunities to meet winemakers and discover their selections.

Come along, taste, learn something new and enjoy the flavours and aromas of Dalmatian tradition. See you at the Martinje celebrations!

13 November 2026 – Wine Stories

Obrov street ·19:00–23:00

Martinje in Obrov Street has become a lovely little tradition, celebrating young Croatian wines, good food and, perhaps most importantly, togetherness and the revival of our city's streets.

Visitors can look forward to presentations and tastings of young wines, accompanied by music and a chance to enjoy the warm atmosphere of Dalmatian tradition.

19:00–23:00 · Music programme with a DJ

Join us in Obrov Street, raise a glass to young wines and enjoy the great atmosphere!

14 November 2026 – Our food and Wine Stories

Fish market and Obrov street · 17:00 – 23:00

The Fish Market will host a fair showcasing island products, featuring winemakers and local producers from the islands of Brač, Hvar and Vis. Visitors will have the opportunity to sample authentic island specialities, meet local producers and discover the flavours of the Dalmatian islands, accompanied by traditional island music.

A charity fish barbecue will also take place in front of the Fish Market. The fish for the occasion has been generously donated by Centaurus, and visitors are invited to support the charity initiative with voluntary contributions. All funds raised will go to the Juraj Bonači Centre for Education and Care in Split.

The gastronomic and wine programme will continue in Obrov Street, featuring presentations and tastings of young wines, opportunities to meet winemakers and a special music programme. Obrov Street will become a meeting place for wine lovers, food enthusiasts and everyone who enjoys the spirit of Dalmatia.

Come along, taste, sing and be part of an evening that brings together island flavours, wine, music and solidarity!